Supporting your business worldwide

Making sure you have the right legal and accountancy support is integral to success when trading overseas. MSI Global Alliance has over 260 independent member firms in 100 countries. So, whether you are expanding overseas, acquiring a foreign business, or involved in any cross-border transactions, MSI member firms have the experience, skills and resources to support your international business activities.

Global reach, local expertise

If you are expanding into a different country or trading across the globe, you will require a wide range of professional advice as well as an understanding of cultural and behavioural differences between countries. MSI member firms have detailed knowledge of local business and employment laws, tax systems and regulations, as well as a deep understanding of local customs.

Trusted and collaborative teams

MSI member firms are carefully selected and among the most reputable, full-service legal and accountancy firms in their local marketplaces. A commitment to collaboration sits at the heart of MSI Global Alliance. Member firms know each other well and have worked together for many years, putting clients' interests first.

Partner-led service

MSI member firms provide a partner-led service, giving you access to senior people on the ground for all your cross-border transactions. You can be confident that your matter will be dealt with by the most appropriate and skilled professional advisor.

Speed of response

MSI member firms understand that you need to act quickly and have a commitment to providing efficient and accurate responses to your international business needs. MSI member firms are able to move fast, whilst maintaining accurate and reliable service levels.

Owner-managed businesses

MSI member firms are owner-managed businesses and understand the myriad challenges of running a business. MSI Global Alliance advisors appreciate that no organisation is the same and provide seamless advice that reflects your individual needs.
